“ My deepest consolation going out to Betty Rae's family, we were childhood playmates: I knew Mrs May Belle, her mother, Pee Wee, her brother, also, her sister Margaret, and Maddie Belle, also Cora, knew them all, a great loving family. We were all raised up during the very hard depression years, and at that time they lived on the old Orangeburg road, in Branchville, as we did. Betty Rae was sweet, and loving, always a devout Christian, also knew her late husband Frank. I am so very sorry for her loss and pray for her family.
