“ I am so sorry ❤️ about the loss of Todd here on Earth but have no question in my mind that he is enjoying his new life with our Heavenly Father. Todd was a very special part of my teenage years we shared many years together. Our families were close, in fact he used to work for my dad at the gas station in Branchville. My dad used to always do silly stunts so this one day he sent Todd down to the other gas station to borrow a left hand monkey wrench. Of course all of us at the store knew there was no such thing but not Todd, he bebops up there and ask for a left hand monkey wrench. He came back and said now Mr. L. M. you knew there was no such thing...we just laughed.. So I'm sure my dad and him are now catching up in Heaven. I know that he will be missed here but I can only imagine the reunion he's having with family and friends. To his family and friends I will keep you in my prayers loosing someone is never easy but thank goodness for memories.

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved family member. When a loved one falls asleep in death it grieves the heart. Our loving heavenly father, "the father of tender mercies" and the " God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) want all to look to him for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says; Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Also Psalm 94:19 states; "When anxieties overwhelmed me. You (God) comforted and soothed me". May these scriptures help you cope with the sadness and grief at this time of bereavement.
