“ I would like to express my sympathy in the loss of your dear family member. The death of a loved one is one of the most painful events that can happen. Our loving heavenly father understand how you feel because death was not a part of his original purpose for mankind (Genesis 1:28). However, he provides comfort to help soothe the feelings of sadness and grief. Psalm 147:3 says; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. The wonderful promise for the future at Revelation 21:4 is very comforting. It says; He (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. “ Dear Family,
I am truly sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest and sincerest condolences and some words of comfort from God's Word, the Bible.
Our merciful, heavenly Father sees and understands what you are going through and he is there for you to help you through this difficult time. (Psalms 121:1-3; 145:18, 19) So, please call upon and accept all the help from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)
Our loving God and Creator, Jehovah, did not intend for us to die, so he promises to reunite us with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. (Psalms 83:18; Hosea 13:14; Titus 1:2) Knowing you will see your dear Dianna again will hopefully bring you a large measure of peace and comfort. I will also include you in my prayers.
