“ We are very sorry for your lose at this time. Words can never take away the pain that you are feeling at this moment but in it will get easier to bare. And his memory will always live on forever just by keeping him alive in your thoughts and conversations. We will be praying for you and your family that God will make things a little bit easier for you to be able to do the hardest thing in your lives and that will be to see his coffin lower down in the ground. He was a wonderful, thoughtful, and caring person and we are gonna miss him. But God needed him just a little bit more than any of us did, so HE called him home to be with him. As you know that in his last days here on earth; Jimmy was suffering just from the accident that he was in and God didn't want him to suffer any longer. Again we will be praying for you and your family.
