“ Missy,

Sparky and Debra informed me of Joey's passing. Just wanted to let you know that Eddie and I would have come but he is in ICU at Baptist in Columbia with complications from severe dehydration and bilateral blood clots in his legs. I remember riding with you guys on the motorcycles and how much fun we had. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ *My condolences to the family. I knew Joey when we went to Branchville together. Great guy and always a positive attitude. Though I have not spoken with him for about 10 years, I know from the news that the world is just a liittle bit dimmer without his presence. I will see him again, but we will both be perfected when I do.
My deepeset sympathies....*

“ Life can seem so unfair in times like this. But don't fret your hearts too long and too hard. God knew this day would come. He knows exactly how and what you all are feeling. Don't lose faith. He is way to wise to make a mistake. Even now, PRAISE Him for His will that has been done. Continue to trust Him and lean on Him for strength. Aren't you glad that He promises to never ever leave us nor forsake us. Remember, it is easy to sing His praises when all is well. But, it is in times like this that our faith is put to the test. Cast your cares upon Him for he truly cares for you. God's blessings.

Thinking and praying for you and family,

Love Dee

“ Missy, Naomi, Boley, Stephanie, Blaine and Riggs,

Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel about the passing of Joey. He was not just a cousin; he was a friend that always made you smile when he was around. I will always cherish the childhood memories growing up in Branchville, the school bus rides and weekend fun around town and who could ever forget the Memorial Day birthday celebrations at Santee with all the Summers family. Wonderful childhood memories that Joey was a part of.

Missy the day you and your family moved to Branchville, little did we know then, but God had a plan for you and Joey. You were the love of his life. Thank you for making him so happy all these years.

With love and sincere sympathy,

Joye Summers Gibson
