“ I will always be thankful for having known Moose for many years. There would be no way to count the meals he prepared for his friends-hunting club, fire department, Wednesday night suppers, butcherings, political gatherings, peanut boilings. But I also admired the pure honesty Moose always had. If you asked him his opinion, he would tell you-you may not agree but he did not "ride the fence" or sugar coat his feelings- a vast difference from today's politically correct crowd. Thank God for allowing us to share time here with Moose
