“ Mrs. Stevens,
I am truly sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathies and some words of comfort from God's Word, the Bible.
The loss of a dear husband of 63 years can cause much pain and feelings of loneliness, but remember that you are never alone. Our merciful, heavenly Father is there for you to help you endure this difficult time. (Psalms 55:22; 121:1-3) So, please draw ever closer to and rely fully upon "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)
Our loving God and Creator, Jehovah, did not intend for us to die, so he promises to reunite us with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. (Psalms 83:18; John 5:28, 29; Titus 1:2) Knowing you will see your dear Kenneth again will hopefully bring you some comfort during your moment of loss. I will also include you in my prayers.
