“ Ms. Lorraine and Mr. Ernest were such good friends and neighbors when we lived next door many years ago. When our first baby (Daniel) was born, they met us at the car when we brought him home. As a new mother, Ms. Lorraine was such a big help. The biggest memory I have was when I had to break the habit of the baby sleeping with us and was sitting on the back steps as he cried in the crib, Ms. Lorraine came and sat and cried with me. Even though I have not seen her in many years, I never forgotten her and what a wonderful person she was. I was unable to attend the services today, but my condolences to the family. Yvonne Follett
