“ I will miss you so much aunt Bell! I'm so glad you were finally able to see the colors change for the first time ever this past fall in the Blue Ridge Mountains. To see you happy puts a smile on my face. Rest in peace!

“ Your Mother

Although you cannot hear her voice or see her smile no more, your mother walks beside you still just as she did before.

She listens to your stories and she wipes away your tears; she wrap her arms around you and she understand your fears.

It's just she isn't visible to see with human eye, but talk to her in silence and her spirit will reply.

You'll feel the love she has for you - you'll hear her in your heart; she's left her human body but your souls will never part.

Sorry for your loss you are in our deepest prayers and thoughts

“ My previous lifelong friend I will you so much. We shared a childhood bond that grew into a womanhood and didn't need to see each other every day or talk to each other every day but knew we had a sisterhood love that few people ever share. Tell Uncle George and Aunt Lou May hello and I love them. I'm not saying goodbye because I know we'll meet again because time and space cannot separate our love.
