“ I will always remember Marianna with a smile on her face. When I saw her at Railroad Daze she would stop and talk with me. Her Mother. She will be missed by so many. Prayers for Johnny and the rest of her family. Donna Kemmerlin

“ I'm very sorry that I did not know Marianna, but I knew Libby her mother, and also, her father. Sending heart-felt sympathy to all of her family, including the Byrd family, and yes, i even knew her granddad, Mr. Norman Byrd, who ran the grocery store at the corner of 21 and 78 Hwy's. As you entered his store the first thing that caught your eye was the large 'candy case' filled with BB Bats, silver Bells, Coconut squares, in pink and white, squirrell nuts, (these were 2 for a penny. Most anything you could think of in the 'penny candy' line, was in this candy case! Again, so very sorry for the loss of your loved one, and God bless this family...
