“*Mrs. Infinger,
Please accept my deepest and sincerest condolences and some words of comfort from God's Word, the Bible.
The loss of a dear husband can cause much pain and feelings of loneliness, but remember that you are never alone. Our merciful, heavenly Father is there for you to help you endure this difficult time. (Psalms 55:22; 121:1-3) So, please draw ever closer to and rely fully upon "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials."~~2 Corinthians 1:3, 4~~
Our loving God and Creator, Jehovah, did not intend for us to die, so he promises to reunite us with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. (Psalms 83:18; Hosea 13:14; John 11:38-44)
Knowing you will see your dear Mark again will hopefully bring you some peace and comfort. I will also include you in my prayers.*

“*I would like to express my sympathy in the loss of your dear family member. The death of a loved one is one of the most painful events that can happen. Our loving heavenly father understand how you feel because death was not a part of his original purpose for mankind (Genesis 1:28). However, he provides comfort to help soothe the feelings of sadness and grief. Psalm 147:3 says; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. The wonderful promise for the future at Revelation 21:4 is very comforting. It says; He (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. “ My deepest condolences to the family during this difficult time. Look to the God of comfort to soothe the pain of this great loss. We look forward to the time when death will be a thing of the pass and we will be reunited with our loved ones here on the earth (2 Corinthians 1:3,4; Psalm 94:14; Acts 24:15)
