“Mrs. Mildred was the greatest. She knew everything, but fortunately for me she told my sister (Tina) and not my parents. Although at times that was probably just as bad. Mrs. Mildred did not know a stranger and everyone was welcomed into her life. She was fun-loving, teasing, and hard-working. She knew God and now he knows her - because she can't be giving him any peace. What a remarkable woman with a town full of legacy to remember her by. She will never be forgotten. God bless and hold Mr. EJ, Jay, Mitzi and Susan and their families. She was a fabulous woman and you are so lucky that she was yours.
