“ My condolences in the loss of your beloved family member. During this difficult time comfort is needed. The Bible provides comforting words at Psalm 147:3; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also Revelation 21:4 promise in the future; And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. May these scriptures provide comfort for you during this time of bereavement. For more comfort, please visit our website: jw.org and view the video; Is There Hope for the Dead? Click publications, then videos.

“ I remember Pennie from our school days. She was a very special young lady who enjoyed life and was always happy. I have not seen her in quite a few years. When I go home to Branchville and reminisce about the good ole days, I do think about Pennie and her sister Patsy. Two remarkable young ladies. She will be missed by many. God Bless her family not just now but in all the days to come. It is great to be assured that one day we will see her again when we arrive in heaven to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I will keep her family in my prayers.
