“ MISS ME BUT LET ME GO!

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want know rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little- but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared-
Miss me- but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go along.
It's all a part of the Masters plan,
A step on the road to home.
So when you're lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me- but let me go.*

“ Dear Todd & Victoria and The Chavis Family... Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be. But there's a reason for it all beyond the power to see. And may it comfort you a little to know that the one you love has found eternal happiness and lasting peace above.

“ My sweet and wise cousin - she fought the fight like the greatest of warriors. She was strong, loving and willing to share of herself as long as there was something left to give.

As Sojourner Truth said, "I'm not going to die. I'm going home - like a shooting star." And Rhonda has. Whenever you look into the beautiful southern skies at night, Rhonda will be sitting in some perfect constellation making everyone's life brighter, doing the work that she and God have been preparing for her to do.

While we shed tears and mourn, there is so much to be thankful for that we were able to share some small part of her beautiful life.

I will continue to pray that love and faith will help to mend your wounded hearts and offer you peace.

“ We are very sorry to hear about your loss of Rhonda. Even though we have not seen her in several years, she was a very special, kind hearted and beautiful person inside and out. We will always hold special memories of her and cherish the time we shared. She always had a smile and positive spirit. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time. We know she is in heaven looking down on us.
