

Vernon D Norton Sr.

June 23, 1933 - November 16, 2022

Branchville

Vernon Delano Norton, Sr., 89, of Branchville South Carolina entered into eternal rest on November 16th, 2022 at his residence. He served 2 years with distinction as a Marine. Vernon was a faithful member of Branchville Christian Church where he served as an elder for many years. He also loved music and enjoyed playing the mandolin. He was known to many as "Curly" or "Deda". Vernon was the son of the late Lewis & Trannie Norton. He was predeceased by his loving wife of 66 years Rose Marie "Boots" Norton, his sisters Hazel (Royce) Perry, Mildred (Tony) Poole, Irma Lee (Kenneth) Day and brothers Delmas Norton, Charles (Iris) Norton. He is survived by his children Daniel E. (Catherine) Norton, Melody R.(Sheckie) Summers, Alma "Darlene" (Doug) Horne, Vernon "Dell" Norton Jr. (Robin Polk), nine beloved grandchildren, and numerous great grands. The family will receive visitation from loved ones on Friday November 18th, 2022 at Branchville Christian Church at ten o'clock in the morning followed by a memorial service at eleven o'clock. Online condolences can be sent to www.ottfh.com “ *Melody and Darlene...your mom and dad were always loving and welcoming. They always made me feel as if I fit right in. I know they were each warmly welcomed when they arrived home...I know your mom was thrilled to have him join her.

Bask in your warm memories. They will never leave you! "Penny"*

“ *My dear friend, Mr. Lee "L T" Hughes and Mr. Vernon Norton, played their guitars along with others in the 'Back Porch Band', for many precious years, including the preacher of the Christian Church. They all enjoyed many years together in playing and singing
God's hymns , and enjoyed entertaining, all being together in Christian fellowship. Mr. Vernon will be sorely missed by all who knew him, may God bless the family at this sad time.*
