“ I am so very sorry to learn of the death of Virginia. We go back many years. I remember her as a very beautiful tall young lady who lived with her family upstairs on Main Street, Branchville, SC, with her family. I remember her in school, and in our young days we shared some dates together. She later married my 1st Cousin, John Thomas McAlhany, and together they had a family and built a beautiful live together. I have some early photos of her which are dear to me. Sending love, prayers, hope, and my deepest sorry to her family..she will be sorely missed. God bless you all.
